

Residential youth worker (permanent and casual)

Richmond Fellowship ACT (RF) is a non-government organisation that provides a wide range of community support services in and around Canberra. Some of these services include residential care for young people, mentoring and support for people with mental illness and family counselling.

Do you have a strong desire to work with young people who display challenging or complex behaviours often linked to trauma?

Would you like to work in a highly dynamic and rewarding environment?

RF is currently looking for enthusiastic residential youth workers to join their youth adolescent programs.

Your maturity, strong interpersonal skills and willingness to work as part of a team are a must for this position. You will be supported through access to ongoing training and development.

The successful candidate:

- will have a committed to providing exceptional care to young people in need
- be willing to expand their knowledge and have a strong desire to learn
- will have well developed inter-personal skills
- we be highly motivated
- previous experience highly regarded but not essential

RF operates a 24 hour 7 day roster and applicants would be expected to work within this roster. RF can also offer attractive remuneration, great benefits and a great team environment.

To apply please submit a detailed resume and a cover letter outlining why you would like to work with Young People.

Please email applications to: hrrfact@rfact.org.au or post to PO Box 83, Curtin ACT 2605 attention to HR Coordinator.

For further information please feel free to call Monique Campbell (02) 62486118.